- The registration fee must be paid in full before the start of the workshop, by bank transfer or credit card online. Invoices will be made upon request.
 - The OECD Nuclear Energy Agency is an international organisation that is conducting an educational programme, similar to organising a conference. It is not a vendor, or a service provider, or a contractor. Therefore we are not able to sign Purchase Orders.
 - If you need a signed statement, we can send you signed letters for payment for our educational programmes but we will not be able to sign any Purchase Order.
 - The registration fee is not subject to French taxes of any kind.
 - Regarding applicable laws and jurisdiction for settlement of disputes, the OECD Nuclear Energy Agency, as an international organisation, is not subject to the laws of a country. The OECD Nuclear Energy Agency indeed abides by the rules and regulations that were adopted by its member countries. Therefore, we cannot agree to anything that stipulates that we will be governed by the laws of a given country.

Refunds

If a class is cancelled due to low enrolment, participants may request a refund of any registration fees paid or may request that the fee be credited towards their attendance at a future class.

Refunds cannot be issued for cancellations received less than one month prior to the workshop; however, any registration fees paid can be credited towards attendance at a future class.

The NEA will process registration fee refunds only for absence due to medically-certified illness.

Note aux participants français:

L'OCDE/AEN n'est pas un centre de formation, aucune convention de formation ne sera établie.
