GRANT OF RIGHTS AGREEMENT

TITLE of the “Paper”: [TITLE]

The undersigned, acting on his/her own behalf as holder of the copyright to the above-mentioned paper (the “Paper”), or as the authorised representative of the person or entity holding the copyright, grants the OECD/NEA the publication rights to the Paper, royalty-free, for the full period of copyright. This assignment includes the right to publish, distribute and sell (or license others to publish, distribute and sell), selections, abridgments, re-editions, reprints, translations or adaptations of the Paper in either print or electronic form, or any other medium of publication or presentation, throughout the world without exception.

The undersigned confirms that he/she has the authority to grant these rights. He/she further confirms that all sources in the Paper are properly cited, that the Paper has not previously been published and that all necessary permissions have been obtained for use of previously published material in the Paper.

This grant of publishing rights is non-exclusive. However, the author undertakes to refrain from publishing the Paper elsewhere prior to initial publication by the OECD/NEA. The author further undertakes, in any subsequent publication of the Paper, to mention the title of the original OECD/NEA publication in which the Paper was first published.
