The advantage of calculated dose rate fields visualisation is demonstrated by a shielding example taken from the Rinecker Proton Therapy Center (RPTC) which is being constructed in Munich, Germany. The example consists in the representation of various shielding alternatives. The basic conditions, the resulting iso-dose-rate pictures and a principle method for their creation are given.